Is A Wedding In Your Future?

Congratulations!

This is wonderful time in your life to define your style and create traditions, and the right tableware and entertaining accessories will make it all possible. But where do you start? The tableware choices for today's' bride and groom offer endless possibilities, from casual to formal, traditional to contemporary. Let us help you select what you need to set a fabulous table. We will show you how to mix and match your look, and point out future accessorizing options that will continually breathe excitement into your selections.

Most importantly, we will help you make selections that reflect and define YOUR taste and lifestyle!!

Perhaps you already own some dinnerware, flatware or crystal and simply need to "fill in." Just bring in some samples of what you have and we will gladly help you coordinate some new selections that will update your setting! Our Wedding Registry Consultants will be happy to answer your questions about tableware, etiquette, and weddings. We will work with you personally to help you set a table that will bring rave reviews -- even before the food is served!
